ing.

REFUGEES' FAIR.—Though the weather prevented a great many persons from visiting the Fair last night, there was a very large crowd present, and every one present seemed to enjoy the evening very much. A great many persons were attracted, who contributed very liberally. As there are a great many ladies and children who have been unable to attend, the lady managers have concluded to keep the Fair open this afternoon for their benefit, and we hope the hall will be crowded. To-night is the last night, and we appeal to all our citizens and strangers generally to go to the Fair and do all they can towards aiding the ladies in their work. Go and contribute all you can, and we promise that you will not regret having contributed any amount to the Fair for the benefit of helpless refugees.

ARREST OF A GUERRILLA IN THE CITY.—
About 7 o'clock last evening officers Joel Lombard and Thomas Allen arrested at Brown's hotel, on Johnson street, opposite the jail, a man whose name we did not learn, on the charge of being a guerrilla and a guerrilla. He had within the past few days stolen three horses from West Point, which were brought to this city and disposed of. After his arrest he acknowledged that he had belonged to one of the numerous bands of guerrilla which have operated in the neighborhood of Salt River.

HORSE VOUCHERS.—The following vouchers are ready for delivery at the Provost Marshal's office, in charge of Captain J. M. Carter, Cassidy & McAlister, Edwin Bailey, Conrad A.
Sabb, H. Bremer, H. Clute, J. T. Smith, Daniel Heston, H. W. Kettler, Michael Lupp, James & Rose, John Hook, E. D.
Stearns, Moorhead & Co., George Miller, George O. F. Minor, H. C. Seymour, James P. O'Conor, C. Smith, Adam Sawyer, A. Seib, J. A. Rider and John Seider.

RETAIL DRY GOODS STORE AND FURNITURE FOR SALE.—Messrs. Mark & Dows, corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets, in Masonic building, offer their stock of dry goods and furniture for sale. They have been most successful business men, and their stand is very desirable for a retail business. To any one desiring to engage in the retail dry goods business, or to one, more especially, who wishes to secure a first class location, we refer the establishment of Messrs. Mark & Dows.

DANONERS.—The walls of the Galt House are still standing, and are liable to fall at almost any moment, perhaps causing the death of one or more persons who may be passing.
It would be a good idea to pull the walls down and clear the rubbish off the sidewalk, as persons are constantly passing by the entrance, to go into the masonry streets and along. Let the walls be pulled down and the pavements be cleared.

BARRACKS No. 1.—Business was quite active at the Barracks yesterday. One hundred convicts arrived from various places, one hundred and four men arrived from Springfield, and five hundred and fifty-two from Nashville; one hundred and seventy-one were sent to Nashville, twenty-five to Cairo, fifteen to Springfield, seventeen to St.
Louis, seventeen to Detroit, and thirty-five to Indianapolis.

There is nothing like military discipline in this city which cannot go to the post office or after his dinner without being mounted upon his steed and followed by a black nigger upon another one. He visits his lady love occasionally, much to the pride and pleasure of the city. Yesterday the Provost Marshal sent her over the river, with orders to "stay there this time for good."

There was another big opening for a clothing establishment up on Upper Green street yesterday. If it hasn't been occupied it has no doubt been removed to the same other locality. The house belonged to Uncle Sam.

ORPHEUS SOCIETY.—This splendid corps of musicians and vocalists, under the direction of Mr. Geo. Zoeller, will give an entertainment on next Thursday evening in the Massonic Temple. It will be a grand affair.

Henry Ryan, company D, Fifteenth U.
S. Infantry, was caught wearing citizens' clothes yesterday and he was sent to Camp, Joe Holt will be sent to his regiment.

James Kennedy, a suspicious character was arrested yesterday and put in the guardhouse. He was ordered to go North, but the order was countermanded.

A wedding party arrived in this city yesterday before last from Newmarket, Kentucky.
May happiness never forsake them.

No MATH.—We were without our regular mail from the East yesterday. What is the matter? Who is to blame?

DEPARTURES.—Six deserters arrived here yesterday from Indianapolis, and three from Detroit, Michigan.

St. Valentine's day is near at hand. We are ready if the young ladies are willing.

See the advertisement headed "Lost," in another column of to-day's paper.

For list of letters see fourth page.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Mr. and Mrs. Florence fashionable audiences that ever assembled within the walls of this theatre greeted Miss Maggie Mitchell last night, on the occasion of her benefit.

To-night she will appear in her new play, "The Night of the 1000," which she will perform in her own city, when she will appear as Margot, in the interesting play of Margot, the Poultry Dealer.

This afternoon the great play of "The Two Grooms" will be given, when Miss Maggie Mitchell will appear in her new play, "The Night of the 1000," which she will perform in her own city, when she will appear as Margot, in the interesting play of Margot, the Poultry Dealer.

VARIETIES.—The minstrel playing at the Varieties drew a very good house last night and their each the performers, and if it is to be had of no doubt the performance of negro character it is to be found at the Varieties on Fifth street, near Jefferson. To-night a new bill is offered, new jokes, songs, dances, burlesques, comedians, &c., together making up an entertainment worth three

GUERRILLAS ON THE LOWER OHIO.—FRAN-TOM FINE.—The steamer Phantom arrived from Nashville yesterday, and from her officers we learn the following particulars in regard to matters along the Lower Ohio:
On her way up, and when near Ostrander's Point, nearly opposite the mouth of the Blue river, the Phantom was hailed by a party of persons stationed on the Kentucky shore. The Captain of the boat, not fearing the appearance of the men, did not pay any attention to their hallooing, either, but came on. As she passed the place the rebels on the shore, some one hundred in number, opened on the boat with musketry, some forty shots striking the boat, but fortunately no one was injured. The guerrillas are at different points along the Lower Ohio, but they did not interfere with the Phantom at any other point than the one mentioned above.

The Phantom brought up the following report, who were captured by our forces in the neighborhood of Henderson:

Col. Wm. P. Grayson, Lieut. E. E. Napier, Jos.
P. Carter, Ed. B. Wood, Thos. L.
Jackson, Robt. H. Jackson, Wm. Miller, Jas.
Michael, Geo. F. Miller, M. C. Jackson, Wm. R.

The grocery market is very quiet, and we hear of only a few small sales of Rm coffee at 20¢ for old and 22 to 25¢ for the prime new crop. The stock of molasses is light, and chicken meal quantities command 15 to 20 to 25 per gallon for plantations in bulk, and syrups 10¢ to 15¢ to 18¢ for white, and 12 to 15¢ for soft but less rich. Good rice 15¢ to 18¢, and inferior 12¢.

Our provision trade, what is the affairs received from other points, is dull and unsettled, with more disposition in the part of buyers to realize, than to buy. There were a few small sales of sugar, but not so many, so that no sales were effected to-day. Quotations are merely nominal, and it is almost impossible to arrive at accurate figures. We look to-day could readily have been purchased at 10¢ to 12¢ for the best, and 8 to 10¢ for the inferior.
